Keeping Current

We hope that you all have had a wonderful Spring, an enjoyable Mother's Day and soon an uplifting Memorial Day Holiday. We have had a War in Iraq since the last time we have published and distributed the KeysNews. Our Prayers for the Planet Meetings and Emailing Lists have continued to be supported by many and we truly appreciate your continued interest. We ask for Healing for the wounded and injured and for the Mercy Bands to assist the Crossing to the Light of all those who have died in the War in Iraq. Thankfully, the actual casualties have been fewer in number than some had predicted. Let us ask for continued Perfect Works and Precise Accountability for the directions to be taken by all those in power in the World. Let us ask that those in Power at the United Nations come to the willingness to do God's Will in all future political and military matters over time. So be it for all the nations of the World, especially those presently in actual conflict such as those in the Middle East and those fighting the War on Terror from all sides.

In note of the fact that there is a lot of political and military turmoil in the world at this time, we have updated a previous KeysNews article first released in 1997 entitled, "Changing the World." Some of you may remember the original article. There is much that is different in this new article that we have printed under the same name. Here's to Changing the World in the Most Perfect Way of Our Infinite Creator Source for all time. So be it.

As a Public Foundation, we must once again note that we are supported by tax-deductible donations from our friends and sponsors. There is never a charge for the Spiritual Information that we share, and never a charge for our Prayer Services. We thank everyone who is currently pledging and donating money to our Foundation for you are the ones who are helping us to help others.

Changing The World

If the whole is equal to the sum of it's parts, and if everything that you put out comes back to you, then that which the world is experiencing as a whole is being caused by the combined energy being put out, and therefore by the energy presently carried, by all mankind, incarnate and discarnate. People with negative (or positive) personality habits and karmic magnets interact with other people who have their own negative (or positive) personality habits and karmic magnets, thereby to create various incidents throughout the planet, from time to time, over time.

If you want to make the world a better place, then you must help to make each and every individual thinking person (incarnate and discarnate) more positive, loving, giving, patient, flexible, honest and productive, consciously and sub-consciously, over time. And, you must also help those people to now rebalance each's own individual negative karma as consistently and as safely as is possible over time. A world full of positive, loving people doing the karmically correct thing at all times would surely be a worthy goal for all those on this planet who would like to Change the World for the better over time.

Since only God knows when kindness is cruelty and cruelty is kindness, since only God knows when to be more patient or to draw strict boundaries in each and every individual situation, the only actual way

God I Am Divine Companionship

God I Am a Divine Companion for the Creator. God I Am always in Conscious Contact with the Voice of God within me. I always ask the Creator for His Divine Loving Guidance in all things and I always Receive Divine Verbal Guidance from the Creator. I know that My Relationship with God is real, tangible, conscious and specific. I know that I am Living My Life as I Am Directed by the Creator and in His Most Perfect Way, because I take the time to not only ask Him for Input, but I also take the time to listen for the Answers that He gives me in a conscious, specific way. I always talk to the Creator when I want answers and I do always Receive those answers verbally, in God's Most Perfect Way and Time. God I Am Divine Love, Sharing and Caring. God I Am Divine Communication and Total Understanding. God I Am the Perfect Divine Friend to the Creator because I see my relationship with God as a relationship among Divine Equals, Equals because we are One in Consciousness and Beingness at all times. God I Am Divine Love, Service and Unity. God I Am the Perfect Relationship with God within me.

God I Am Divine Communion and Connection. I Am in Constant Contact with the Creator because I always Remember that we are Living This Life Together. God I Am Divine Love, Service and Unity. God I Am the Divine Love of the Creator because I Enjoy focusing on God within me. I See the Creator as the Loving Companion that He is for All Life. God I Am Divine Patience and Understanding. God I Am Enlightenment and Awareness. God I Am Able to Enjoy My Life at all times because I always See Life as an Eternal Learning Experience. I See Myself as a Companion of the Creator who is Eager and Happy to Learn from My Divine Creator Teacher and from all Master Teachers that He sends into My Life in God's Most Perfect Way over time. God I Am Able to Focus on God within me and on all that is occurring in my Earth life at all times because I See Myself as Living a Divine Life and I See All that Occurs as part of the Lessons that I need to learn so that I can always do the Right Thing in all situations and circumstances for all time. God I Am Consciously Connected to God within me at all times. God I Am Divine Companionship and Enjoyment of Life. So be it. I Accept that this is so. Thank you God.

to achieve the abovementioned goal of a world full of loving, karmically correct people would be to create a world in which every individual (incarnate and discarnate) is receptive to, and acting upon, the Will and Plan of Our Infinite Creator Source from within himself, at all times and over time. If you want to Change the World for the better, you have to put the clear, unadulterated Voice of God into every conscious mind, and every mind must be willing to Receive that Voice, and then act upon its Directions at all times.

Taking Individual Responsibility

In order for you to be able to help others to be able to live according to God's Will from within each, so must you become able to do so yourself. If you really want to Change the World, you have to start with changing the man (or woman) in the mirror. The most beneficial self-improvement that a person can manifest is to become one with the Creator; is to become able to feel and do unto self and others as God would have him feel and do, at all times and in all situations. It is the surest way to become able to treat yourself better, as well as to treat and inspire everyone else, much, much better, over time. Anyone who is living according to God's Will and Direction is being the best person he can be, for himself and for all life, no matter what it may look like to himself and/or to others at times or over time.

If you want to more quickly and efficiently work to change others for the better, whether to change all mankind or just those in your own immediate world, you should also take some time to work to remove any and all lesser god influences (negative and/or limiting personality habits and/or karmic magnets) that there may be within and around those people by literally asking the Creator to do so. Since the world is full of experiences that tend to cause most people to withdraw from God's Guidance, and/or that tend to cause them to return to their familiar negative habitual attitudes again over time, permanent change requires consistent, daily Spiritual Development work over time.

And, if you really, really, really want to help others change more quickly suggest that they pray for the Creator to consistently Intervene in their own lives and consciousness; and specifically suggest that they work to make themselves more positive, more karmically correct and more Receptive to the Voice of God within them in general over time as well. Anyone who asks the Creator to take full and complete charge of him, and to make himself more positive and God inspired over time on a consistent basis, is certainly doing a lot towards changing himself and all those he affects in God's Most Perfect Way over time. Anyone working to change himself and others by the specific asking accordingly for those others on a consistent basis, is surely helping to Change the World in the absolute Most Efficient and Permanent Way possible, and is thereby creating better and better karmic balances for himself with all life, at all times, as well. That is why we always pray for other people in the private sessions that I do with my clients.

Conscious Mastery

Many well meaning, spiritually oriented people, ask God to direct them into doing the right thing in general, but very few actually wait to act until they get an actual specific verbal answer from the Creator before taking action. It is always better to ask God for Direction than not, but it is even better to work to be able to receive that Divine Direction on a specific and conscious basis, verbally, through Receivership of the Will and Truth of Our Infinite Creator Source into your conscious mind. After all, sometimes kindness is cruelty and cruelty is kindness. You cannot automatically give everyone in your life what they want or what they think is best in the name of being God-Like. You cannot rescue everyone. Do so and you could be spoiling your children and/or becoming co-dependent with your friends; and then unnecessarily weighted down by all of it along the way.

“Thou Shall Have No Other Gods Before Me” literally means that a person should not be influenced by anything other than the Voice (the Will) of the Creator within him. “Ask so that you may Receive” literally means that the Creator Desires all of His Children to Ask for His Help. If the Creator wants His Children to ask for a healing and for material gifts such as money, food, etc., don't you think that He wants His Children to ask for His Guidance and Direction? And don't you think He would prefer His Children to become able to Know His Will specifically rather than to just guess at what He wants and/or at what would be the best spiritual course of action to take at a given time?

God wants All of His Children to learn from their experiences; and therefore He wants them to consult Him about those experiences. God is constantly seeking to Guide, Enlighten and Comfort His Children, and is doing so through projecting His Thoughts to those Children in a form that people recognize as Intuition. God wants His Children to Ask for His Direction, consciously and specifically, because He wants to Answer them consciously and specifically. God wants Equal Companions, not subservient children. He wants His Children to grow up into His Students. He wants them to become able to Know what they are doing, not guess or assume. Life on this planet is a School through which to learn How to Know God through experience.

In order for His Children to know Him, God has to provide His Guidance, Enlightenment and Direction consciously and verbally to them. Jesus said, “that which I do, you shall do and more.” Do you think that Jesus ever did something that was motivated by His own personal self will control? No. Jesus always consulted the Creator before acting; and by the above statement predicted that all of God's Children will become able to do as He did. God's Voice is within each and every one of His Children; and taking Conscious Direction from the Creator on how to conduct your life, and on how you are to respond to and influence others, is the quickest and only permanent way to change your life, and to change all life, for the better, in the Most Perfect Way and Time of Our Infinite Creator Source, for all time.

“There's One Child Born To Carry On...”

Another way to make the world a better place is to help make every new born baby more positive and God Inspired than they would otherwise be, right from the start of his incarnation. The more positive, loving and God Receptive are the new-born babies, the better the planet will become over time. After all, the new born babies are the future of the planet, and the future for every soul lifestream presently incarnate on the planet over time as well. The earlier you focus on teaching a child as directed by the Creator, and specifically to teach him to become so directed by the Creator within him on a Conscious Basis, the more positive and loving he will become when he grows up, and the more he, himself, will become willing and able to Change The World in God's Most Perfect and Permanent Way over time.

There are two main ways that a person can help to make the new incoming babies more positive, and more capable of being directed by God within self, over time. One way would be to “ask so that they may receive” freedom from whatever negativity and limitation that each baby is born carrying in his sub-conscious mind for the mastery as part of his Divine Plan programmings, right from the start. In fact, such general prayers and asking accordingly should be done for each new baby by his Parents and/or Spiritual Custodians before he actually incarnates into the physical this time around. It is always beneficial to seal a soon-to-be-born Spirit into Divine White Light as early as possible in his life. This is especially important when you think of the fact that this new born baby will be incarnating into a world that is presently mostly filled with people who are in mortal consciousness and personal self will control, people who almost always manifest and experience conscious and unconscious psychic trespass in their lives over time.

In fact, the parents and friends of any and all new born babies should be very careful to care for, talk to, pray for and direct their babies, as so directed by Our Infinite Creator Source, and in His Most Perfect Way over time. Every observation and decision that a child makes in his life is somewhat affected by all that he has experienced before it. Many of a child's life long habits are picked up very early in life in response to his experiences in general, in response to any entity influence around him, and/or through imitation of those around him. Let your Children imitate your asking God for His Direction before you act and they are very likely to pick up that Divinely Supportive and Divinely Protective habit in God's Most Perfect Way over time.

If I Be Raised, I Raise Them All

The second main way for a person to help to make at least some new born babies more positive and God-Like in general would be to successfully work on his own Clearings and Masteries through Co-Creatorship and asking accordingly on a consistent basis. This focus on personal Spiritual Development would make such a person a better influence on all those around him, including and especially on the children of the world. And, the more that a person masters and requalifies for himself over his lifetime, the less negativity and karmic debt he will carry with him to the other side that will have to be carried in, rebalanced and mastered by a new incarnation of his soul lifestream (baby) in the future.

"If I be raised, I raise them all," truly applies to the fact that every mastery a person makes for himself, he makes for the planet, for all mankind presently on it, and for his soul lifestream, and therefore for all of his karmic offspring (future incarnations), and therefore for all the future inhabitants of the world. Once again, if you want to Change The World, start with the 'man or woman in the mirror' and then extend that work to your entire Soul Lifestream and to all mankind in God's Most Perfect Way over time. Remember the 100th Monkey!

Paying a lot of attention to your own specific Spiritual Development; supporting the Spiritual Development of others, and praying for yourself, others and for the planet to come into alignment with God's Will in all areas of life, are all steps that any sincere person should take if he truly wants to Change The World in the Most Perfect Way of Our Infinite Creator Source at this time, over time and for all time. Such steps are all much more effective in the long run than building shelters for the homeless, feeding the hungry, spreading the wealth or even healing the sick. "It is better to teach a man to fish himself..." than to constantly supply him with your fish.

Missionaries and Masters

We all can and do learn through experience, reading and relationships, in addition to what we can learn directly from God within through Divine Impress. There are plenty of people in this world who have learned things in those ways that may be valuable as lessons for other people. But, if a Spiritual Student doesn't ask the Creator to explain the lessons that he gets from life, from reading and/or from those he perceives as his teachers in life, if he doesn't have active, conscious and specific verbal Receivership from God himself, then he may not be perceiving (and eventually not teaching) the highest truth and reality inherent in all that he retains as his important lessons in life. Observation without timely Divine Explanation is not always accurate or insightful.

Throughout history, missionaries have been sent all over the planet to try and Change The World. Unfortunately, if a particular missionary is just following some set of rules that he learned in some religious school, and is not, himself, being consciously and specifically directed (and updated) by the Voice of God within him at any and all times (as in when people change their minds), then he may often be unable to serve and/or uplift others in the Most Perfect Way of Our Infinite Creator Source at the time. If that missionary is not having every aspect of his own life (and the applicability of his Spiritual Teachings in a given situation) explained to him by the Creator day by day, moment by moment, then what he may be preaching and/or teaching may be incorrect in general, or at least not applicable for the moment and for the particular person or persons that he is trying to assist (persuade) at the particular time.

In reality, true Spiritual Mastership, and therefore the development of the ability to actually Change the World for the better at a given time and in general, has very little to do with learning a set of beliefs and then living by them day by day no matter what is occurring. "Thou Shall Have No Other Gods Before Me" means that a person should not be motivated or educated by any other influence but God within him, at any and all times. It means that a person should live his life as he is now directed by God within him, day by day, moment by moment. All other considerations are lesser gods, even those that have been written down thousands of years ago, followed by millions, fought for, and put forth as having been received from God, and passed on through various Holy Books over the centuries.

After all, what was applicable then and for those people will most likely not be applicable now and for today's people (at least somewhat and for some of the time).

Trying to Change The World according to the beliefs and suggestions that have been handed down through generation after generation, and through each mortal consciousness interpretation after mortal consciousness interpretation, is not what the Creator had in mind when he said, "Thou Shall Have No Other Gods Before Me."

All of this does not mean that every Spiritual Student should avoid Spiritual Teachers. It means that every Spiritual Student should avoid those Spiritual Teachers who try to make them follow a set of predetermined rules in every situation, no matter what. It means that every Spiritual Student should find a Spiritual Teacher who wants that Spiritual Student to develop his own Conscious Connection to God within him over time, to be used as his life happens and as things change from moment to moment, thereby requiring spontaneous responses from him (from God within him) at the time.

Jesus, Himself, said that "that which I do, you shall do and more." Jesus heard the Voice of God within Him, directing Him on all things, in the moment, day by day, every day. He didn't live by a set of rules written down years before, handed down by priests, interpreted and misinterpreted by people with limited consciousness, lifetime after lifetime. He didn't try to fit His Lifestyle into what was proscribed by those who went before Him on Earth. He did as he was spontaneously, specifically and verbally directed to do by the Creator at the time. God's Will changes as people make choices. Otherwise how does anyone ever get credit for making a mastery?

Jesus lived in the eternal now, where God lives, and where God's Words come to you directly, specifically and spontaneously, to enlighten you and direct you, and to help you do what is needed at the time to Improve the World. Jesus was One with Our Infinite Creator Source because He did and taught as directed by the Creator in the moment, not according to the text books of His time, and most especially not according to other people's interpretations of those texts. The Missionary Work, and therefore the Spiritual Re-Education, that should actually be provided unto others is the fact that each should work to develop the ability to have no other Gods before him. Spiritual Students should be taught that Spiritual Development is to become able to do unto self and others as God would have you do, moment by moment, as consciously directed by a Creator who truly wants to Share Your Life at all times. It truly takes spontaneous Divine Guidance to Change the World in God's Most Perfect Way over time and for all time.

To become able to do unto self and others as God would have him do, a person must become able to hear and act upon the Voice of God within himself specifically and spontaneously, at any and all times, and no matter what is or is not happening in his life. This fact, and the methods to establish and apply such an infallible and Constant Conscious Connection to God within self, should be the actual curriculum that is offered by True Spiritual Education. The True Divine Master Missionary is the person who treats everyone as he is consciously and specifically directed to by Our Infinite Creator Source at the time. Such a person always serves as the Divine Example of all that he is trying to teach. The True Divine Master Missionary is the person who inspires and supports Crystal Clear Receivership Development and Application for and within himself and for and within all life as his number one goal in life.

To be a True Divine Master Missionary you should hold Prayer Meetings where many are joined and there is the Power. Hold those meetings in order to join together in asking that all life receives freedom from negativity and limitation. In those meetings, ask so that the allness of the beingness of all life may receive every God Good Thing, including and especially the gift of Crystal Clear Receivership Direction from Source themselves. Also in those meetings, specifically ask God to take full and complete charge of everyone on the planet; especially take charge of everyone in positions of power, authority, control and leadership in all areas of life on the planet. Take the responsibility to ask so that all life, especially spiritually unconscious life, may receive. In doing all of the above, you will be Changing The World in the Most Perfect Way of Our Infinite Creator Source over time.

Specks In Your Eyes...

There is a very common negative habit pattern within people who are often the most vocal in expressing the need and desire to Change The World. It is the pattern of finding fault and judging others while not taking the time to look deep within themselves for all that needs to be corrected. If a person isn't working diligently on his own Spiritual Development, he has no right to complain about other people, and he is not ready, capable or designated by God to monitor and help change others.

It is he who is consciously and specifically directed by God in all that he thinks, says and does, that is doing a lot more to Change The World in God's Most Perfect Way than he who is exposing corruption and/or than even he who is serving soup on a breadline, but also ignoring the Creator's Voice within him during the conduct of his own every day personal life. Your own Spiritual Development is the greatest gift that you can give to God, to yourself, to your lover, to your spouse, to your children, to your friends and family, and to all present and future inhabitants of this World. So be it.
