Keeping Current

We hope that you all have had a wonderful July 4th Independence Day and rest of the Summer. We continue to have attacks in Iraq, negotiations between the Israelis and Palestinians, and a Nuclear Stand-off with North Korea, among other conflicts on the planet. Let us ask for continued Perfect Works and Precise Accountability for the directions to be taken by all those in power, and by all those who are seeking to gain power, in the World. Let us ask for freedom and forgiveness from the past between all those who are participating in the conflicts on the planet and the allness of their beingnesses, and then let us also ask that each competitor come into the Willingness and Ability to be more consciously and specifically directed by the Creator through Crystal Clear Receivership Application now and for all time in God's Most Perfect Way over time. So be it.

In the desire to inspire more people to realize why they should commit to developing and applying Crystal Clear Receivership, we have included an article entitled, "Receivership and Monitoring." It is a major update of a previous article and we hope that it provides a greater understanding of the kind of help that most Spiritual Students need to take best advantage of the fact that the Creator wants to reach out to each, consciously and specifically.

As a Public Foundation, we must once again note that we are supported by tax-deductible donations from our friends and sponsors. There is never a charge for the Spiritual Information that we share, and never a charge for our Prayer Services. We thank everyone who is currently pledging and donating money to our Foundation for you are the ones who are helping us to help others.

We encourage everyone to send us any and all prayer requests that they have by phone, by mail or e-mail. Please feel free to share these newsletters and refer all of your interested friends to us for placement on our mailing list. It's FREE. Thanks.

Receivership and Monitoring

In previous newsletter articles, we have defined Receivership as the ability to receive messages from God within you. In those newsletter articles, we have also noted that there are three kinds of Receivership, Verbal Receivership (clairaudience), Visual Receivership (clairvoyance) and Feeling Receivership (clairsentience). Also in those newsletter articles, we have stressed the fact that Active Receivership Application is the ultimate form of Surrender to God because it is taking the initiative to ask the Creator to specifically and verbally direct you on what to do and on what to believe in life, at the time and in general over time.

In those articles, we have also said that even though having Visions (clairvoyance) and/or Special Feelings (clairsentience) are both tangible forms of Receivership, that the most important form of Receivership for a Spiritual Student to develop is Verbal Receivership. This is so because other forms of Receivership (clairvoyance, clairsentience) must still be explained by the Creator verbally in order for a Spiritual Student to fully understand the true significance of the actual information that was at the time being projected by the Creator. In this article, we are going to discuss the importance of developing Verbal Receivership and will also point out how best to do so over time.

Change Your Life

Many people on the planet today pray. They talk to God. They ask Him to change their lives. They ask Him for His Help, Healing and Material Gifts. People even sometimes ask Him for His Guidance and Explanation of Life. Unfortunately, very few actually expect Him to reply in a conscious, specific, verbal way, and therefore very few wait to hear God's Guidance before acting. Some people do look for signs of God's Guidance, such as in a vision or a feeling. But, visions and feelings, even if they do come from the Creator, don't really help unless they are verbally explained by Him.

Unless a person takes the time to listen for and perceive the Creator's specific words, how can that individual expect to be specifically (efficiently) helped by God to change his life for the better? Are lives magically transformed because God is pleased with a person's prayers, or, is that person responsible to make the right decisions as so directed by the Creator, one after the other (with the help of Verbal Receivership), so that he can thereby Co-Create the desired life improvements?

"Thou Shall Have No Other Gods Before Me" means that a person should not be influenced by anything or anyone, by any voice, before and above the Voice of the Creator (the influence of God) within him. By that statement the Creator is declaring that He wants to Guide His Children as they make decisions about what to do and about what to believe in life. That First and Most Important Commandment is God's Declaration that He wants people to use Receivership to run their lives on a day to day basis.

God wants to Guide and Enlighten His Children because it is the only precise way to help them to improve their personality habits and their karmic magnets over time (only God knows when kindness is cruelty and cruelty is kindness). And, a person's life will not change for the better if his personality habits and karmic magnets don't, prayer or no prayer. Most people want God to change their lives for the better, but few are actually willing to sacrifice their free will ability to make decisions as they see fit in order to allow Him to do so. "Change my life God, but don't change me."

All of the above is why prayers for a better life that aren't accompanied by prayers for a greater ability to be guided by God within you on a decision by decision basis, are not acts of Spiritual Surrender. It is why prayers alone can not really change a person's life for the better for long, especially if he continues to make the karmically incorrect decisions on a daily basis. If you don't work as hard to become able to receive God's

Guidance (to develop Receivership) as you work (pray) to receive God's (unseen and unspoken) Assistance in creating more Wealth, Success, Attention, Romance, Notoriety, Looks, Talent, Slimness and Longevity, then what you want is more control of your life, not less.

All of the above is why you cannot become a Spiritual Master by prayer alone. It is also why the Prayers that have the most power to change your life for the better are those for God's Guidance on how to create what you want (on a step-by step basis), rather than those that simply ask for a hand-out from the Creator. You cannot expect God to score a goal for you if you don't give Him the ball and let Him call all the plays.

God doesn't provide fish every time a person asks because what His Children really need to learn is how to fish. He may magically provide some fish, for a while, especially to those who ask for His Help and sincerely want His Guidance, but are not yet able to Receive it. But, He doesn't provide ongoing miracles (rescues) as a way of getting His Children to love Him because that would just make them all the more dependent upon Him, and thereby less oriented towards growing up spiritually, as they must in order to become Equal Companions for Him in the physical.

God wants all of His Children to see that there is more to life than what meets the mortal eye; and He also wants them to see that they should come directly to Him for Guidance and Explanation of Life. God wants all of His Children to become His Spiritual Students and eventually His Equal Companions, and not remain His unconscious dependent needy children forever (lifetime after lifetime). Learning Receivership is the first real adult step that any of us on this planet can actually take.

I Was Lucky, Excited and Fearful

When I was a beginning Spiritual Student, I was lucky enough to find (to be found by) a very sincere, reliable, experienced (loving, funny) Spiritual Master-Teacher to help me learn Receivership. Because I soon had total confidence in Bernice's impersonality, accuracy and sincerity, I didn't have to worry about how I would know if and when I was receiving from God correctly. I was happy to have Bernice to monitor my progress.

I also didn't have to worry about becoming dependent upon her either as Bernice always told me to go to God first, then to double check with her for confirmation (affirmation), if needed. But, even though I trusted Bernice, and was excited about the concept of talking to God, and even more excited about the possibility of God talking to me, I was hesitant, and a bit fearful, when Bernice first mentioned that it was time to focus on developing (and therefore following) my own written verbal Receivership.

My fears about doing my own Receivership included: the fear that I could get it wrong and sabotage my life and/or sabotage someone else's life by following what I incorrectly received; the fear that I would get it wrong and look foolish to other people, especially to my Spiritual Teacher; the fear that I would get it wrong and create negative karma for myself because of disobeying God and/or because of hurting someone else; the fear that I would be told something about myself by the Creator that I wouldn't like to hear; the fear that I would be told to do (or not do) something that I really didn't (did) want to do; the fear of not being able to make decisions quickly when called upon to do so; and the fear of not fitting in and of disappointing people if God didn't allow me to do as most of those around me really wanted me to do at the time.

What's Your Motivation?

What all of the above eventually demonstrated to me back then, and what is obvious to me now, was the fact that I was then approaching Receivership with the actual motivation of needing to use it to gain more control of my world and being, and not as a focus for my letting go of control, and not as the tool that it was supposed to be for Surrender to God. If I wasn't too concerned (fearful) about controlling how others thought of me, why would I worry about how I looked if I Received incorrectly? If I wasn't too concerned about controlling what I would experience in life, how could I worry about where my Receivership Direction would take me? How could I worry whether God would let me do or not do what I wanted (or what others wanted) if Spiritual Surrender was actually a goal for me?

A part of me thought that I was sincerely surrendering to God by even wanting to develop my own Crystal Clear Receivership. But in reality, the fact that I had those fears proved otherwise. It proved that I was unable to be comfortable doing Receivership without a guaranteed acceptable (to the person I was then) result for my efforts. I didn't see just being able to do Receivership sincerely and impersonally, and thereby accurately, as the goal in and of itself. I was too concerned with how doing Receivership would affect my life, and thereby determine my self-image, over time. Bottom line, I was looking for more control when what I actually needed was less control, and then ultimately to learn how to be comfortable without any personal self will control. "Thy Will, not my will, Oh Lord."

When a person approaches Receivership (or approaches Spirituality in general) with the underlying motivation of gaining more control in his life in order to feel secure, he is actually approaching it because of a sense of vulnerability and with a fear of losing control. Looking back, I know that I started to focus on Spirituality in general because I wanted to avoid physical death, and because I was angry at the way the world was going (vulnerability and fear of losing control of my life).

A vulnerable person who fears losing control has to have a certain underlying level of resistance to letting go of control deep within him; but I not only didn't want to lose control, I obviously wanted more control at that time. I wanted to have more Spiritual Power to change my life in the ways that I wanted at the time. And, at the time, I had no idea that true Spiritual Power is the ability to feel safe and secure without control.

But, how can a person with resistance to letting go of control ever Receive accurately? After all, to do Receivership you must be receptive to the Guidance, Direction and Explanations put forth by the Creator. Receivership cannot be successfully developed by someone who doesn't actually (if not passionately) want to let go of control, sincerely and completely.

All of the above is why beginning Spiritual Students often see doing a Receivership paper as a chore, rather than as the gift from God that it actually is. They don't really want to do it because they (and especially their discarnate passengers) don't really want to let go of control, if not in general, then about particular issues and situations in their lives at the time (they and their discarnate passengers would feel amplified vulnerability when trying to do a Receivership paper, I did, at first).

Once again, I must stress, that Crystal Clear, Accurate, Uplifting Receivership Ability cannot be developed by someone who doesn't really, really, really want the Creator to take full and complete charge of him, and of his life, at all times. It cannot be successfully developed by someone who is not willing to depend upon someone (or some Force) other than himself for Guidance and Explanation of Life.

Receivership Application could never be embraced by someone who doesn't encourage himself to look past his present belief systems for understanding; and it could never be a comfortable habit for a person who is self conscious about how he looks to other people. And it especially could never be continued by someone who is more afraid of being dependent than he is desirous of being led past his previous limitations by those who have successfully gone there before him.

The Learning Curve

Logistically, when a person is afraid of (and/or sub-consciously resistant to) letting go of control, he tends to be more anxious, inhibited and intellectual than he would normally be, all other things being the same. No one does his best at anything when he is 'too attached to the results' and therefore is nervous and fearful about the outcome should he make a mistake.

No one can do his best at Receivership if and when he is fearful about how he will do in the process, and/or if he is fearful about what will happen if he turns his life over to the Creator in general, at the time and over time. That is why practically no one begins Receivership, and then immediately becomes completely efficient and precise at it without a Learning Curve. A person who has never been in the water doesn't become an expert swimmer the first time that he gets his feet wet.

Add that to the fact that practically every person on Earth has been born with a Divine Plan to carry certain lesser god influences (negative personality habits and karmic magnets) as programmings in his sub-conscious mind for the mastery and karmic rebalancing in this life right from the start, and it is no wonder that the Learning Curve for most individuals is steep enough to keep them from even wanting to surrender control, let alone get to the place of becoming good at it.

Every beginning Spiritual Student who has lived the greater part of his life in mortal consciousness (no belief in cause and effect over lifetimes), and living under his own personal self will control (no desire for Direct Guidance from God), nurtured and molded by parents in mortal consciousness and personal self will control, consistently influenced by a modern media in mortal consciousness and personal self will control, has had to have added many additional lesser god influences, including discarnate passenger personalities, to the ones each was born carrying right from the start.

When you consider the fact that all lesser god influences (judgments, fears, addictions, memories, relationships, discarnate spirits) have and project voices within a person's conscious mind that can literally contra dict, if not completely block out, the Creator's Voice at times and over time, it should be easy to see why there will always be a Learning Curve for practically all beginning Spiritual Students; and it should be easy to see why most societies today believe that people do not hear God's Voice at all.

After all, it isn't easy to hear the Voice of the Creator tell you to draw boundaries in your marriage when you can still hear the voice of your mother telling you “to do anything that you can to hold onto a man.” It isn't easy to hear God tell you to be patient when you hear the voice of a discarnate passenger who is outraged at not getting the raise that you/he thought you/he had been promised. And, it isn't easy to hear the Voice of God about a particular investment when the voices of fear and greed are competing for your attention.

All of the above are reasons why most beginning Spiritual Students almost always need a lot of help to even start to Surrender to God in the form of developing and applying Crystal Clear Receivership. It is why there is a real Learning Curve, and why many who do start to work on developing Receivership, often get lost, only make “start and stop” progress, and then almost always have a “start and stop” commitment to the process in general, at least at first.

All of the above is why many beginning Spiritual Students just give up on the Spiritual Surrender process over time, especially when it doesn't bring them (and/or bring their discarnate passengers) the perks (the control, the victories) that most need in order to feel good about themselves over time. All of the above is also why the Spiritual Teachings that are the most popular today are those that promise more control (through proprietary self discipline-self improvement techniques and affirmations) rather than the ones that require you to surrender control.

All of the above is why every new Spiritual Student actually starts his Receivership Development with as great a potential and tendency to receive from (to receive as influenced by) various lesser god influences as to receive from the One Greater God, Our Infinite Creator Source, over time. It is why every beginning Receivership Student must be willing to make mistakes, and be monitored by those who are able to catch those mistakes, in order to make progress, at least at first. After all, lesser god influences (especially discarnate passengers), and the voices that they project (and the habits they represent), do not give up easily.

But, if you desire to be corrected, you will learn from the process even when you do not receive correctly. Every monitored, but non-affirmed, Receivership paper that you do will tell you about yourself, and about what lesser god influences still need to be disempowered from within you, so that your future Receiverships may be more accurate. If you cannot comfortably face being corrected, you will never know when you are right and when you're not, and you will never make any real Spiritual Development progress over time either.

Easier Karma-Free Learning

Learning Receivership with Monitoring is much easier, quicker and safer than trying to do so without it. With Receivership Monitoring, a Spiritual Student will develop confidence in his Receivership more quickly because he can be sure that he will not be allowed to fool himself into believing that he is doing the Will of the Creator when he is not. With continued Receivership Monitoring over time, a beginning Spiritual Student cannot help but eventually learn to recognize the difference between hearing the Voice of the One Greater God, Our Infinite Creator Source, and hearing the voice of any of the lesser god influences that may be within or around him, including any discarnate passengers.

The goal of Receivership Monitoring is not to make the student depend upon his Spiritual Teacher to help him make all of his daily life decisions, but rather to help the student become comfortable with depending upon the Creator to help him make all of his daily life decisions. After all, there will be times when even the most sincere Spiritual Student will have to use his Receivership to make a decision at a time when his Spiritual Teacher is unavailable to Monitor him.

There is no negative karma for a sincere Spiritual Student who acts on what he receives because he sincerely believes it to be God's Will, even when it is not actually God's Will. The Surrender is in the Asking, not in the accuracy of the information. Of course, it is always better to be precise and accurate in your Receivership, and in the actions that are taken because of it over time. But no one could actually live any kind of enjoyable, spontaneous life if he always needed to wait for confirmation from his Spiritual Teacher prior to making any kind of decision.

Just doing a Receivership “on the go” when a decision needs to be made, and then acting accordingly, would be “negative karma -free” for any Spiritual Student who is sincere in his desire to be corrected in general over time. To demonstrate such a sincere desire to be corrected in general, a Spiritual Student would simply have to setup and stick to a regular daily Spiritual Routine at home that is specifically designed to improve his Receivership accuracy on all subjects over time.

There are a number of things that a Spiritual Student can and should do to demonstrate his Sincerity in Action and thereby to insure that his “on -the-go” Receivership handling of his life is as accurate as it can be over time. All of them relate to the concept of amplifying the Voice of God within him while disempowering and removing all lesser god voices. And all of them are actions that will help keep him “negative karma-free” as he follows his Receivership to run his life even during times when he is unable to be Monitored.

In fact, just the decision to want to be Monitored demonstrates real Sincerity. Doing Prayers for God’s Control over you as a consistent habit also demonstrates real Sincerity. Asking that all known (and unknown) lesser god influences (including discarnate passengers) be removed (be ascended) from you on a consistent basis certainly demonstrates a great amount of Sincerity. All that is true, but it is consistent Self Monitoring “on-the-go” that actually demonstrates the most Sincerity.

The Repetitive Negation Method

The Repetitive Negation Method is the simplest and most effective “on-the-go” Self Monitoring process that I have ever seen. The Repetitive Negation Method simply requires a person to challenge every strong, distinct, motivating thought, new idea, emotion, feeling, vision, attitude change and inner conversation that comes up to his conscious awareness at any particular time. This challenge simply consists of saying, “if this thought (vision, idea, feeling, emotion, etc.) is not coming from God, then I want God to remove it from me; if it is coming from God, then I want God to amplify it so that I may be sure.”

In repetitively negating the particular influence upon recognizing it, a person is automatically asking God to remove all negative, lesser god influences as they come up and before they can motivate him into speech or action. In asking God to amplify any idea or influence if it is coming from God, a person is automatically asking God to amplify His Influence as it comes up from within that individual, thereby to also automatically amplify the Creator’s Presence within him in general, at the time and for all time.

In practice, when an influence is not coming from God, it will lose power in the challenging person’s mind, eventually to disappear from his awareness completely as the Repetitive Negation continues (5-6 times at most). If the particular influence is being projected by the Creator at the time, it will then gain power in the challenging person’s mind and will soon become stronger and more obvious as the Repetitive Negation continues.

In this way, by using the Repetitive Negation Method, a sincere Spiritual Student can consistently disempower all of the lesser god voices within him while also amplifying God’s Voice within him at the same time; thereby to make it all the more likely that he will be able to Receive more and more accurately over time.

Using the Repetitive Negation Method alone doesn’t guarantee 100% accuracy right away, but it does demonstrate 100% Sincerity right away; and as such utilizing it does help a Spiritual Student achieve 100% accuracy as quickly as is possible over time, especially when it is combined with Receivership Monitoring by a suitable Spiritual Teacher. In most cases, using the Repetitive Negation Method will also help a Spiritual Student avoid becoming habitually too dependent upon his Spiritual Teacher for day to day answers.

In fact, the true purpose of Receivership Monitoring is not for a Spiritual Teacher to become the Student’s guru and for the Student to live the kind of life that the Teacher lives, such as in the Teacher’s ashram or group living situation. The goal of Receivership Monitoring is to help the student to live his own life as designated by the Creator through his own Receivership; which is why the best Receivership Monitoring is done in more of a Counseling-Teaching environment than in any kind of living together arrangement.

If a Student starts to try to get his Teacher to make all of his decisions for him, rather than go to God first himself through Receivership, the Teacher who is Monitoring that Student should withhold such Monitoring until that Student once again goes to God first for his answers and then to his Spiritual Teacher for Monitoring. A good Receivership Monitor monitors his Student’s level of Surrender, not just the correctness of his Receiverships.

In summary, Receivership is the first step towards Spiritual Maturity. It can only be developed by people who truly want to grow past their limitations and who really desire to be corrected. Practically all Spiritual Students start out being strongly influenced by various lesser gods most of the time. That is why all Spiritual Students can benefit greatly from ongoing Receivership Monitoring by a sincere Spiritual Teacher who utilizes his own Crystal Clear Receivership to run his own life and to determine his Teaching methods.

Receivership Monitoring is not designed to cause a student to have to depend on a Spiritual Teacher, but rather to help that student depend upon God within him instead of allowing his negative and automatic lesser god influences to control how he responds to life. The Repetitive Negation Method is an excellent form of Self Monitoring that can and should be used to challenge any and all influences that may come to a person’s mind, thereby to automatically amplify those that come from the Creator, while automatically disempowering those that come from any lesser god source. IN CLOSING, I would like to say thank you to every person who is using Crystal Clear Receivership to guide him on his day to day life decisions and directions. You are the ones who stand as the Pioneers and the first of the Hundred Monkeys on this planet who will help to get others to handle their lives as directed by the Creator and in His Most Perfect Way over time. You are the ones who are manifesting Higher Consciousness and the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth by being One with God at all times and with each decision. Thank you God!!!

You Cannot Be In Control Of Your Own Spiritual Development

Spiritual Development is learning to take direction and correction from the Creator within. It is not something that you can do by yourself. And, it is not something that you can do through reading books alone. Everyone needs some help to get past his present limitations on the way to developing the kind of Divine Receptivity that he will need to truly progress Spiritually over time.

Although the historical practice of having a specific Spiritual Teacher has been corrupted by some of the people, some of the time, the original concept is very valid. So many of those attempting to move forward Spiritually tend to get thrown off center by the very same challenges that each has needed to face and master in order to develop Spiritually in the first place.

Everyone needs to be reminded of who and what he really is, and of what is really important in life, for as long as he carries the tendency to forget even once in a while. Everyone needs his own Spiritual Teacher in the physical until he, himself, is totally constant, consistent and impersonal within something that should be the most important focus in his life, his own Conscious, Verbal Relationship with God within him over time.

Testing Your Spiritual Teacher

The most important test of whether a particular person is a True Spiritual Teacher, so directed by the Creator within him, is whether the object of his work is to do all that he can to consciously connect you to your own God within you, or, whether he wants to continue to make all of your decisions for you over time. Anyone wanting to make your decisions for you is playing God and not being God. Anyone directed by the Creator would only want to monitor your progress until the time when you become able to Know and Follow the Voice of God within you, without filtering, limitation or restriction.

If you' re lucky enough to find a Spiritual Teacher who is willing and able to help to connect you to the Creator within you, don' t stop working with him, don' t let go of the Monitoring of your Receivership that he should be doing, unless and until the Creator tells you to do so through your own Receivership. And, in order to be sure that it is not the return of a misplaced desire for personal self will control (or any other lesser god motivation and/or discarnate passenger personality projection) that is influencing you at the time, use the Repetitive Negation Method on any voice telling you to stop the Receivership Monitoring. Even working psychiatrists go to see their Teachers and/or to other psychiatrists for feedback at times; as should Spiritual Student-Masters.
